Importance of the Interview

The interview is your most important opportunity during the asylum procedure to explain why you fled your home country and why you rely on protection in Germany. It provides the basis for the decision, whether you will receive protection in Germany.

Therefore we would like to assist you with the preparation for the interview and may also support you during the actual interview.

Of course our advice is free of charge, your travel expenses (e.g. train tickets) can be repaid.

Please call us or send a message via Whatsapp in order to make an appointment.

More details on the Interview

The interview is conducted by the BAMF. The BAMF evaluates whether Germany is responsible for your individual asylum application and decides whether you will receive protection. During the interview, you will personally be asked questions about your reasons for fleeing your home country and how you got to Germany. Especially you may explain why you cannot return to your home country. The interview is the most important opportunity you have to explain the reasons behind your asylum application.

What we do

In cooperation with a translator we will prepare you for the interview discussing your rights and the procedure of the interview.

In addition we can go through your individual story and as mentioned earlier, we can also accompany you to the interview.

We look forward to hearing from you!
